

Since the state of Indiana has implemented its Telephone Privacy law, I have received ONLY ONE solicitation by telephone. It has been wonderful. I no longer receive nuisance calls late at night, during meal times or on weekends during my precious free time. Thank Goodness.

Please do not implement any national standards in the name of Telephone Privacy that are below those implemented in Indiana. I would really HATE to start receiving those calls again.

Thank you for your consideration.